TRINITY COLLEGE NORMAL mentions evils incident to a school SCHOOL.

TRINITY COLLEGE, July 2. An eminent writer has somewhere remarked, and I repeat it with an implicit conviction of the truth of the remark. that the heart never knows any home but one, and that is where nature first arose to its vision, blushing with the roses of life's earliest morn. Between the home of infancy and the heart of virtue the certain oblivion shall never fall. Oceans and trackless deserts may intervene; grief, care and disappointment may waste away and finally exhaust the native bouyancy of the spirit, but the memory of that spot where the young imagination received its first and liveliest tints shall never sink behind the hills of the past. If then the home which afforded shelter and nourishment to the physical man in the weakness of infancy awaken so many tender solicitudes, and afford so many happy recollections, how impressive must be the memory of that spot where the mmortal intellect received its vigor, its power, its richness and beauty.

A native of Switzerland wanders away from his native hills unconscious of their grace and beauty. Soon he becomes homesick and his heart sickens and pines till he gets one more glimpse of his own native land. And so it is with every alumnus who has gone forth from his Alma Mater to try the realities of life, he too is rejoiced to get one more glimpse at her thousand charms-she seems to say "welcome home thou returning prodigal." I to-day stand in her classic shades; I stir the reminiscence and ten thousand pleasant associations flit across my imagi-nation. But instead of her halls being filled with joycus youth I find them filled with "Normalites" from different portions of the State, all interested in the great popular movement, the NORMAL SCHOOL. Our Course.

Murfreesboro Enquirer.

A subscriber "gets his back up" at the appearance of a recent article in the Enquirer and orders his paper discon-tinued. Every individual has, doubtess, the right to take, or refuse to take, any paper he may see fit; but heaven one, two or a dozen of such subscribers to have any effect upon the conscien-cious course of the Enquirer. In the first place the Enquirer is run with an idea to principle, and so long as it is in present hands it will not deviate from such a course, and certainly not for a few dollars and cents. Besides. while dollars and cents should not be brought into question, in the Editorial management of a paper whose opinion is worth any thing, yet we think that even in this point of view, we will not be the loser. The people of the District want no milk-water organs. They wish no debate as to whether the object before them be a pig or pup. The demand for a pig-pup organ, is indeed limited. And limited as it is, we must acknowedge ourselves unable to furnish it. We trust the course of the Enquirer is unmistakable. It is the organ of no individual, but attempts to be the fearless exponent of the sentiments of the people of this portion of our district; and as such, it has had, and continues to have, the good wishes and esteem of the people. We will simply say to such subscribers that the loss of one such, is the gain of a dozen more loyal to the great Democratic party, and knowing such to be the case, we shall proceed in the even tenor of our way regardless of them. The killing of A. J. O'Brien on

It is not at all likely that any facts not mentioned in our previous report will be developed. The tracks of the horse have been carefully examined and indicate that the animal had become unmanagable, and that his driver in order to prevent him from running across the track, turned him into the woods, but the animal made directly for the stable which was on the opposite side, and only a short distance off attempting to carry the wagon and the driver over the track, twenty or thirty steps above the crossing.

Political Legislation.

Favetteville Gazette. Unfortunately, the State Legislatures have been following too closely in the steps of the national Congress: We have had, in both law-making bodies, too many would be political leaders and too few honest, unswerving servants of the people. We need more material and less political legislation; we need more of that work which will decrease governmental expenses, promote economy, bring about a spirit of saving and retrenchment, develope our resources and restore general prosperity. Let the next General Assembly go to work vig-orously and honestly; let their sixty days' labor mean something—and their constituents will rise up and call them blessed if they will relieve the general onus of taxation, repeal the "privilege and purchase" tribute, simplify our system of laws, give on impetus to manufacturing, incourage immigration, and intelligently foster and promote our

A RAILROAD ACCIDENT.

A Man and his Horse Killed---A Shocking Affair. Correspondence of the News.

HIGH POINT, N. C., July 3rd. About ten o'clock yesterday morning as Mr. Andrew O'Brien, of Guilford county, was in the act of crossing the N. C. R. at a regular crossing two miles east of this place, the Southern bound express train. bound express train, running around a curve and emerging from a deep cut at the rate of at least thirty-five miles per hour, ran into him, and striking the hind legs of his horse killed him instantly, broke the vehicle into atoms, and so wounded the unfortunate man that he died at 12 o'clock, living only two hours.

The train stopped, the wounded man was taken up, carried to Jarrall's hotel, and medical assistance at once sought, but nothing could be done to relieve the poor unfortunate. His wife was summoned and reached him just before he breathed his last. He was delirious from the time he was taken up to the end. He was, to the last moment, talking to his horse as if trying to urge him forward to shun the terrible danger which he saw too late to save himself. He was about 45 years of age. He was a good citizen, and leaves a wife and several children to lament his untimely death.

This accident happened right near where Mrs. N. M. Alston was so fearfully mutilated some years since by reason of a conductor's folly. He stopped a train on the main track to pick up his own hat. Another train ran into his rear coach, and instantly killed this good woman.

I hear of no blame being attached to any one farther than a rumor that no whistle was sounded before reaching the crossing. OCCASIONAL.

While Profs. Noble, Graves and

Grandy preside in theirs with zeal and give the normalties a practical illustration of work in a College recitation Prof. Ladd's lecture at 12 to-day was on self control as a qualification of the teacher. It showed the importance of this virtue in all teachers and pointed out the evils that would follow if a teacher would give up to his temper; if he would use sarcasm in the school room, if he would show partiality. Keep yourselves in good conversation in the community must not be on any extreme, but as Paul says "all things to all men." Keep out petty discussions and be guarded in your expressions, for you work for a community. You have an influence at home and abroad and in society and you must be eircumspect and have a character spotless. We must be models for the little ones to imitate. We wield an influence at the fireside. Some one has said "you may make the laws if you let me make the songs of a land." I say give me the children and I will make the parents. Teachers, be patient under censure, you will be found fault with. You must stand like a weather cock on a barn and face the storms and turn to your polar star. Be high toned but speak low."

The kindergarten lesson for to-day was the classification of reptiles one of the orders of vertebrate animals. For to-morrow the lesssons is the classification of Batrachians, and and fishes. A Noble and Generous Act.

Murfreesboro Enquirer.

At the last session of the Chowan Baptist Association, the stockholders of the Chowan Baptist Female Institute requested that a committee be appointed to take some steps to devise a plan by which the stock of said Institution might be revested in the Association. The committee which was applied to the pointed, together with the body of stockholders, met in one of the rooms of the Institute on Tuesday of last week, when the stockholders very nobly and generously consented to donate to the Institution the amounts of their respective sums—amounting in the aggregate to $17,000 or $18,000. This generous act on the part of the stockholders, places the Institute entirely out of debt, and leaves the people of eastern North Carolina under lasting obligations to them for this poble contribution in behalf of female

HAVING a representative at the Press Convention the News expected to have had a report of the proceedings, but both the mail and telgraph failed.

THE letter from Trinity College, conferring the degree of L. L. D. on Hon. Kemp P. Battle, was read amid great applause before the Normal School, at Chapel Hill, on Wednesday. Honors worthily bestowed.

By resolution, the Democracy of Pitt invites Judge Fowle to speak at Greenville, during the present campaign. It is a compliment the Judge ought to know how to appreciate and the request is one he cannot well refuse. He will undoubtedly be invited to many points during the Summer.

THEY had a splendid celebration at Salem and Winston on the fourth. Five thousand people were estimated to be present from the surrounding country. Salem Silver Cornet Band and the Winston Light Infantry were out. The procession was an interesting one. A chariot containing thirteen beautiful young girls, represented the original thirteen States. A continental camp represented by three boys in continental uniforms surrounded by revolutionary camp equipage. All the manufacturing industries of Salem and Winston were represented in the procession, even to the auctioneer selling tobacco. Dr. Robert T. Gray read the Declaration of Independence, and George Bayne Everitt delivered the oration. Everything passed off in the happiest style.

The Attitude of a Party Paper.

The News has been arraigned for expressing its preference for Governor Vance for the next United States Senator from North Carolina, believing him to be the choice of a very large majority of the Democrats of the State for that position, but it has not lain itself open to the charge of assaulting gentlemen of the Democratic party. It may be catalogued as among those modern newspapers which have introduced into the journalism of the State a feature of outspokenness which does not hesitate to declare what is believed to be the sentiments of the people, but it has no taken the "new departure" of lending its columns to destruction of the reputations of distinguished public men

It is on record to the contrary. And this paper is glad that it is able to press the claim of Governor Vance without detracting from the merits of Senator Merrimon, for the higher his merit, the more exalted the candidate which proud of the position it occupies as the North" will doubtless be proud of her advocate of Governor Vance for a seat son. in the Senate of the United States, when it can present him without disparaging as a single gentleman of the Democratic party in North Carolina. It congratulates itself that its columns are closed to assaults by any writer who may feel that he owes it to himself to advertise the public of the weakness and failure of men whom the Democratic party has elevated to position. It infinitely prefers to control its columns, even if it might be in the interest of one man, rather than surrender them for attack on every Democrat of prominence in the State. It is better that a party paper should depart from established usage, and become, even the partisan of one man, than preserve the armed neutrality

Democratic faith. The News can afford to support Governor Vance for the United States Senate, so long as it can urge the claims of that gentleman without disparagement to others. It can maintain its position before the people of North Carolina, and say what it feels respecting its candidate and the provailing sentiments of the people, without offence to any gentlemen, so long as it holds up the hands of the Democratic party by giving to every gentleman of the party his full measure of merit. If the contest be narrowed down to Vance and Merrimon, it provokes no hostility from that gentleman or his frends, for it has not arrayed itself against them. If beaten in the contest, he is not destroyed, nor his power to further serve the Democracy impaired, for it has accorded him all the merit as a man and a Senator, that his most zealous friends claim for him. It has chosen to regard the contest as a contest between two big public men, and adopting as a favorite the one, has not sought to prejudice the public against the other.

And this the News believes to be a tenable position at this centre of intelligent population, and before the people of North Carolina.

Governor, for the time being. But the Lieutenant Governor is not here under the clause of the Constitution referred to. The Governor, foreseeing that the condition of Mrs Vance would, this Summer, demand his absence, much of the time, requested Lieuterant Governor Jarvis to come to the Capital, occupy the office during his absence, overlook the business. communicate with him on such matters as required immediate attention, and thereby have the public business promptly attended to. How long the Governor may find it necessary to the present time. Letters received from him yesterday stated that Mrs. Vance was gradually failing, and that it was impossible for him to leave her bedside. He will continue to exercise the full functions of the office. Even when Governors have absented themselves from the State, the Lieutenant Governor was not called to take charge of the office, as the constitution says he shall be. It is well that public men are beginning to appreciate the responsibilities of public office, and it is

Moses A. Bledsoe, an independent candidate fer the Senate, spoke for about an hour and a half at Metropolitan Hall last evening to quite a large crowd. The burden of his speech was the combinations of capital against labor, and the evils to the country result ing therefrom. John A. McDonald, another independent, followed in a speech of a half hour, at the conclusion of which the friends of Mr. George H. Snow called him out. He excused himself, but assured his friends that he would make a thorough canvass of the county, and spoke with certainty of a Democratic victory in the coming elec

Heroism of a Young Lady. On Wednesday, July the 3,a party consisting of Mr. W. W. Perkinson, his daughter, and three daughters of Mr J. Kreth went to Yeate's mill, known now as W. G. Upchurch's, distant about four and a half milesfrom our city, to fish. While there one of the young ladies, Miss Mollie Perkinson. walked out on a tree which leaned over the pond, and fell into the water, which at that place was about ten feet deep; her father passing by in a canoe and seeing her struggling in the water, although he could not swim, thoughtlessly jumped overboard in order to rescue her. Both of them sank, two or three times; and most undoubtedly would have been drowned, had it not been for the fact that they were fortunately near the bank and for the heroism of Miss Lavinia Kreth, who rushed into the water up to her waist and extending a paddle, pulled them to the shore thus saving their lives.

of its existence the Augusta factory has by Court adjourned until 9 o'clock this never failed to pay a quarterly dividend, except on one occasion. (Saturday) morning.

The Ga-lo-ri-ous Fourth.

The day was ushered in by the noble boys of the R. L. A., who, at the first blusb of morning, fired a salute of thirteen guns in honor of the occasion. Thus, at the unseasonable hour of four a.m., were the innocent s umbers of your reporter rudely disturbed, and he was forcibly reminded by the thunders of the 12 pound Napoleons, that another glorious fourth was being heralded.

By sunrise, people from the sur-rounding country began ro flock in, and the noisy hammers of the peanut, cake, lemonade and lunch venders, as they erected their stands, could be heard or all sides. At 8:15 an excursion train from Greensboro arrived with about 350 persons, who joined the dusky throng of promenaders on Fayetteville

Tud Raleigh and Gaston Railroad excursion train soon arrived with between sixteen and eighteen hundred persons, mostly colored. It was a rare sight to stand on any of our principle streets and watch the actions of the motley crowd. It is estimated that by twelve o'clock, there were between five and six thousand strangers in the

As was previously advertised, Jno.

A. McDenald made a speech in front of the court house, but from what we can learn, "Johnnie" failed to draw a crowd: perhaps the cause of the failure was the exhibit by Prof. Gessley of his educated hog, "Pedro," in a tent close at hand. It appears that the crowd preferred seeing an educated hog rather than listen to Col. Mac. speak.

During the morning it rained heavily for about half an hour, much to the consternation of the victual venders, whose pabulum was reduced to the consistency of mush, or rather to that of Ned Brace's "terrapin," so vividly described in the "Georgia Scenes." or three pugilistic encounters of little importance, occurred during the morn-

In the afternoon a large crowd assembled at Moore Square to witness the match game of base ball between the Swiftfoot B. B. Club and the "Huckleberry Blues." It was a hotly contested game, and there was good playing on both sides. In the seventh innings, some wild playing on the part of the "Blues," gave their adversaries four or tive runs, and lost them the game. At the end of nine innings the score stood: Swiftfoot 11; "Blues" 9. Time of game, one hour and forty minutes. By six o'clock the crowd on the streets had grown perceptibly thinner, the excursionists having left. During the day and night the usual number of small boys exploded fire-crackers, torpedoes, and the like. The pyrotecnic lisplay at night was not on so grand a scale as it was in New York, but none of our citizens seemed to grumble at the difference. In fact, the result of Court, for affrays, and continued a the Louisville race, occupied the minds of the majority of our people. The serenade and parade of the 'Skidmore Guards' afforded amusement to a large number of boys, who marched with the band, which consisted of a bass drum, a snare drum, a cortion of instruments, made the night

Thus the fourth passed away, nothing occurring to disturb the duliness of the day, except the usual d's and d's, a few fights and the efforts of the above mentioned band. We yield the palm to Salem; she licked us on celebrating this 4th. We'll do better next time.

Barbecue at Holly Springs.

There was a barbecue at Holly Springs on the fourth, commemorative of the day and a number of citizens from this city were present, amongst whom were several candidates. The Declaration of Inde-pendence was read by Mr. C. D Up-church, after which Mr. Stamps made a very patriotic speech. He was followed by Hon J J Davis in a like strain, he also, giving an account of his stewardship in Congress. Mr. M. A. Bledsoe then announced himself an idependent candidate for the Senate and made quite a lengthy political speech. He was replied to by Mr. Geo. H. Snow, the Democratic candidate for the same position. Messrs Stephenson and Olive Democratic candidates for the House then addressed the meeting, announcing themselves candidates and stating that as the campaign had not opened and as their opponents were not present they would not make political speeche. Messrs. Russ and Upehurch then an nouced themselves candidates for the positions of Treasurer and Clerk respectively, the first the regular Democratic nominee, the latter the Republican. There were about two hundred persons present, being about equally d'vided in color. Everything being under the supervision of Mr. G. B. Alford, the Mayor of Holly Springs, passed off very pleasantly. Mr. Blake's Entertainment.

The barbecue given on the Fourth of July at Thomasburg vineyard by one of the proprietors, Mr. John C. Blake, to his friends, was in all respects an entertainment long to be remembered. The guests assembled about one o'clock and for two hours amused themselves, some in wandering around the spacious vineyard looking at the magnificent display of eleven varieties of native and foreign grapes about to ripen, and hundreds of pear trees of the choicest varieties, loaded down with their luscious fruit, peaches of the finest varieties, ripe and juicy. Others spent the time intervi wing the arrangement of dinner, in playing euchre and whist, and occasionally tasting the-wines, and those that didn't play whist and tastewell, they looked on. At 3 o'clock the horn blew, dinner was announced, and such a dinner as was spread on that spotless table cloth, under the trees that excluded all of the sun and none of the delightful breeze. The Tobacco Tax. The prolonged agitation of the tobacco tax question has undoubtedly wrought much injury to the trade, but the more that is said about Barham's Infalible Pile Cure the better it will be for those suffering from Hemorrhoids or Piles. It never fails to releive. Try a box. Price $1.00, sent post paid. Made by the Barham Pile Cure Co., Durham, N. C, Consumption Cured. An old physcian, retired from practice, had placed in his hands by an East Indian missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remeuy, for the speedy and permanent cure of consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also postive radical cure for nervous debilty and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for peparing and using, in German, French or English. It is cheeky on the part of the Spaniard to run opposition to the Hospitals and Free Schools, as well as other charitable and educational institutions, and pay their prizes at the rate of thirty cents on the dollar, the value of Cuban currency. For particulars of next drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery Company, see the scheme in another column.

Two scanes. Scene 1st.—Two lovers by moonlight alone. He: "You ought to know I love you darling." She looks down blushes, and snuffs. He: "Dont you love me just the least little bit? She: "Yes (snuff(; I could die for you." (Snuff and kisses ad infinitum) Scene 2nd.—One year after marriage. He: "Confound it! I wish you would break yourself of that disgusting habit of sauging." She (depreciatingly): I can't help it Charlie I've had the Catarrh four or five years." He; "Forgive me, dear, I didn't mean to be cross, but in the name of Cupid, get some of Dr Sage's Catarrh Remedy. They say it is a sure cure. You known Ed Brown, they said he was incurable, and it cured him completely." She: I'll do anything to please you, Charlie" (Interesting tableau)

The Liver is the imperial orgrn of the whole human system, as it controls the life, health and happiness of man. When it is disturbed in its proper action, all kinds of ailments are the natural result. The digestion of food, the movements of the heart and blood, the action of the brain and nervous system, are all immediately connected with the workings of the Liver. It has been successfully proved that Green's August Flower is unequalled in curing all persons afflicted with D, spepsia or Liver Complaint, and all the numerous symptoms that result from an unhealthy condition of the Liver and Stomach. Sample bottles to try, 10 cents. Positively sold in all towns on the Western Continent. Three doses will prove that it is just what you want.

An Important Function Stimulated.

The kidneys exercise most important functions, which are so wearisome that they tax to the utmost the strength and endurance of these busy little organs. Every breath, every pulsation of the heart, every movement of a limb, every thought, makes waste and necessitates the development of new atoms. The used up particles in the blood are sifted from it and dissolved in a watery fluid by the kidneys, which then discharge this fluid into the bladder. A train of disasters to the system would follow if these "ashes," so to speak, were not thoroughly strained off and discharged. This is the case when the kidneys become inactive, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters by restoring their activity, not only keeps open a most important outlet for impurities, but prevents diseases of the kidneys the selves, which when inert become liable to fall a prey to diabetes, Bright's disease, nephistis albumenuria, and other maladies specially incident to them, which, although not specially rapid in their progression, are particularly obstinate and fatal.
